

For Home Educators or Tutors

Dear Parent or Tutor,

The challenges facing parents who choose to educate their children in their own homes are many- fold. Paradigm Accelerated Curriculum (PAC) understands the complexities that parents and students face on a daily basis, as well as the challenges in strategic planning for transcript credits and higher education preparation.

The PAC staff has a combined 100+ years of experience in home education. Our staff is dedicated to providing a curriculum that offers a clear advantage for the home school parent/student team. We understand that each parent/student team has unique circumstances and needs. Our individualized curriculum is designed to allow students to complete courses at their own pace with very little hands-on supervision, alleviating much of the common stress on the student and parent.
